Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

3. Catalyst for sustainable change.

HTC's pathway to success:

1. Transform: Repair broken relationships with God, self, others and their environment.

2. Equip: Empower through educational and vocational scholarships, train in life skills, mentor and model on how to use their own resources and skills to solve problems, be employed and live a life of dignity.

3. Mobilize: Lead community restoration and outreach, job creation by becoming catalysts for change, understanding that it is their responsibility to restore their nation.

4. Sustain: Growing and sustaining through the local church, marketplace opportunities for the health of people and nation, network building-linking influencers to elevate change and strategic partnerships to restore the land.

HTC Residential Program

HTC identifies young men and women who desire change. The 18 to 20-month HTC is the only residential program in Haiti and is relational and intimate in nature, a discipleship model of Jesus Christ, and transformative as a result. Personal growth is spurred during this time of healing in their relationships and in their valued purpose, and they emerged committed to serve others. They are then sent out to restore their families, communities and ultimately the nation of Haiti.

The program has 3 components:

1. Transform through training in biblical studies, character development, moral and personal responsibility, stewardship, life skills, leadership skills social/business etiquette and required participation in community service.

2. Equip through vocational education, one on one mentoring, internship and job placement, business and community workshops, service in the church, training and required participation in community service.

Currently students are able to choose from the following vocational options: Computer Technology, Nursing, Construction Trades, Diesel Mechanics, Theological Seminary, Sewing, Culinary and Cosmetology skills. Options for education and trades continue to increase.

3. Mobilize through the Church, HTC Graduate Projects and Impact clubs (neighborhood clubs led by HTC graduates that bring the work of Haiti Teen Challenge into their communities), and the business community.

They are leading community projects, and many forms of community outreach, including starting a school for children of gang members.

They are cleaning up their communities, and, when needed, providing relief efforts for the nation of Haiti. HTC graduates serve in many leadership roles in the Rendevous Christ Church, they serve as teachers and mentors at the HTC program, they teach at local schools, work in local businesses, and some serve as police officers in the communities they used to terrorize.

Sustainability:

1. Through People, transforming, equipping and mobilizing this generation to lead the change in their nation.
2. Through Families, breaking the cycle of fatherlessness, equipping young men and women with tools to provide for their families and teaching that God's plan provides the foundations for a healthy society.
3. Through the Church, the church is the key catalyst for a nation's transformation. It breaks down the walls between the rich and the poor, the educated and the uneducated, and unifies and leads positive, transformational change. "Ultimately, lasting positive change is impossible without the power of the Holy Spirit, and praying for change is the central tool." When Helping Hurts by Steve Corbett and Brian Fikkert, pg. 207.
4. Through Communities, a grass roots effort to build Christian community and bring restoration within those communities plagued by violence, poverty and despair. Helping Haitians to lead the changes needed by acknowledging and utilizing their assets, their resources and God given gifts.
5. Through Economic Development, vigorously pursuing business initiatives to give graduates a lifetime of responsibility, dignity and opportunities to use their skills and education in the marketplace and to contribute to the economic development for the person and the nation.
6. Through Partnerships, acting as an incubator for ministry outreach opportunities and restoration partnerships, and working alongside like-minded organizations and ministries for the restoration of Haiti.
7. Through Wise Governance and Accountability, it is our promise to
